

FCC ID label is laser marked on the housing. It's highly durable and clear to read. We are using a minimum of 1mm text which is known to be easily readable.

The label location is on the outer surface of the product. Please note that the exact location may change due to the need to place other markings. FCC ID text and code are always kept together.

Trademark and model are laser marked on the opposite side of the housing than FCC ID.

FCC label marking

Model marking

