

COVER LETTER

Device 2BN43-PCB03-915 is equipped with a standard SMA antenna connector.

Standard 915MHz with SMA connector provided with Soltigua systems are listed in antenna-datasheet folder.

Device 2BN43-PCB03-915 is sold by Soltigua as a part of solar tracking system.

Soltigua srl is an Italian Project-based company working in the solar market as BTO (Build-to-order company).

Soltigua tracking systems are professional, industrial and customized products only for company's working on Energy market.

Marketing :

The device cannot be sold retail, to the general public or by mail order. It must be sold to dealers or have strict marketing control.

Professional installation :

- Soltigua products installation is controlled by Soltigua.
- Installation is made by customer who hire professional installers.
- Professional installers become trained with manuals , wiring diagrams and/or training.
- Before to activate the system is required the Soltigua Commissioning.
- During Soltigua Commissioning a Soltigua Technician checks if the system has been built in the right way. Only if the system pass the commissioning can be activated.

Application :

The intended use is not for the general public. It is only for industrial use.

In the Soltigua Manual is reported :

PCB03.xy.zz must be installed and maintained by qualified professionals (compliant with FCC 15.203 requirement). No other antenna than that furnished can be used with the device. Change antenna type is prohibited. If required an antenna as spare part only Soltigua can supply the spare part (same antenna).

WARNING : 15.203 . ONLY professional and qualified installer can install and maintain Soltigua Systems.